

Speakers include:

• Stephen Collinson, Managing Director, Ryhurst Limited

Ryhurst is the private sector partner in three of the six NHS Strategic Estates Partnerships working with Lancashire Care NHS Foundation Trust, Cheshire & Wirral Partnership NHS Foundation Trust and the Isle of Wight NHS Trust.

Stephen joined Ryhurst in 2008 to expand and develop Ryhurst's Strategic Estates Partnership (SEP) offering to the NHS. Stephen has considerable healthcare expertise gained in his former roles as an NHS Chief Executive with two NHS Trusts and in the independent and voluntary sectors.

• Karen Baker, Chief Executive, the Isle of Wight NHS Trust

Karen has been Chief Executive of the Isle of Wight NHS Trust since July 2012. The Trust is a unique provider of health care consisting of acute, ambulance, mental health unit and a full range of community services. Karen's career has spanned a wide number of roles, which have included professional lead and general management, mainly within the acute sector. She has also worked at regional and national level influencing the development of strategy and clinical networks. Her main interest is enabling integration across disparate services focusing on meeting the specific needs of the Island's population.

Karen will be speaking alongside Stephen Collinson (above) about the emergence of Strategic Estates Partnerships (SEP) and how they are becoming increasingly popular in the NHS as a way to improve the health care estate whilst unlocking efficiencies and savings that can be put back in to front line clinical services.

• Karl Redmond, Business & Finance Director, Bowman Riley Healthcare

Karl Redmond MSc, is a Director of both the UK BIM4SME and UK BIM4HEALTH groups, endorsed by Cabinet Office. He is also a Fellow of the Leeds Sustainability Institute. Karl is engaged in various initiatives surrounding social infrastructure; procurement; project management; facilities & estate management; commercial asset assessment & improvement programs; strategic integrated business & estate planning. Karl is a member of the NHS Estates and Facilities Management specialist 'Think Tank' providing professional input and advice to the Department of Health (DH) on efficiencies as input to the Carter Efficiency programme.

• Amr Metwally Head of Architecture Division PMC, Hamad Medical Corporation

Qatar's healthcare market is booming and continues to grow as a result of increasing private sector engagement coupled with increasing health insurance coverage.

Amr is a leading expert on sustainable design practices in the Middle East and has been a key figure in the region for over a decade in developing sustainable and visionary healthcare projects. As well as talking about developments in the region Amr will discuss the opportunities and challenges that exist for UK companies and how they can access them.

• Simon Kydd Director, Head of Healthcare WSP Parson Brinkerhoff

Simon is the Head of Healthcare at WSP Parsons Brinkerhoff, a leading international professional services company, providing services to all aspects of the built and natural environments. He has spent the majority of his 20 year career in the healthcare sector, primarily in the work winning and solutions creation for PPP projects within the UK. Simon's strategic role allows him to stay at the forefront of the challenges facing NHS estates and the design and construction teams who provide the key to overcome them.
